Speed access to information. Fuel rapid access to the detailed supply chain information that employees need to do their job with new SmartLists.

Advanced Distribution in Microsoft Dynamics GP

Maintain tight, efficient control over your distribution channels by harnessing sales fulfillment workflow, reducing data entry, and providing better access to information. Streamline your distribution cycle, giving you a high degree of control while ensuring speed and accuracy without extraordinary costs.

Advanced Distribution in Microsoft Dynamics™ GP empowers you to smoothly tailor distribution, providing the control and information you require to meet your business needs and those of your customers. Create user-defined sales fulfillment workflows, define process holds, and ensure that all drop-ship line items meet requirements before moving forward.

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Dynamics GP interface. The top window shows the 'Advanced Distribution Transactions' screen with a list of transactions. The bottom window shows a detailed view of a transaction, including a 'SmartList' window with columns for Item Number, Item Description, On Hand, and On Order.
